prof. Roman Kushnir, Academician of NAS of Ukraine, Director of the Pidstryhach Institute for Applied Problems of Mechanics and Mathematics, National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine hereinafter referred to as "the Parties".

§ 1

1. The Parties declare the will to establish cooperation within the scope of their rights and capabilities, determined by their statutory activity, using their potential in undertaking necessary research works and implementation in the following areas:

- 1) promotion of joint research activities;
- 2) invitation of short-term visits of faculty members for lectures, conferences, colloquia, symposia or other academic activities;
- 3) exchange information and potential publication in the fields of interest to both sides;
- 4) exchange faculty members and students for study and research.

Extensive collaborative research will be carried in the area of physics of nanomaterials, their electronic and luminescence properties. The subjects of research are to be designated for each case, based on mutual interests. The conditions for employing the achieved results as well as arrangement for specific visits and changes should be endorsed by both sides on each specific case.

2. Taking into account the above-mentioned declaration, the Parties will strive to conclude an agreement on mutual cooperation at a date convenient for both the Parties.

3. Detailed rules and manner of implementing joint activities in the area referred to in paragraph 1, will be determined in separately concluded agreements.

4. This Letter of Intent is solely an expression of the will of the Parties to cooperate with each other. It does not create an obligation to achieve the goal set out in it, nor does it impose any financial obligations on the Parties, nor does it limit the parties' ability to sign letters of intent with other partners, with the same content as this Letter.

The Parties undertake to keep the secret of everything they learned while negotiating and preparing for cooperation, and for mutual loyalty and respect for good customs.

§ 3

This letter of intent will be ratified in two original documents, in accordance with two copies, one for each party, both written in English language and being equally authentic.
